Sabato 25 Febbraio us fu dato per isaglio in un negozio di vestiti una moneta da venti dollari di oro. Chi lo ha ricevuto per errore e pregato di tornarlo negli uffici del Barre Daily Times e riceverà un premio a piacere in ricordo. Questa offerta si fa per sapere precisamente quando e come fu fatto questo errore chi ha ricevuto la moneta non ha nulla da rimproverare e rarsi, anzi sarà ringraziato del gentile ritorno.

The bondsmen of Arthur Martineau of Montpelier are trying to locate his whereabouts. G. R. Bianchi in his bondsmen and the amount of bail is $500. Martineau, who was a stone-cutter, was arrested on a civil suit brought by U. Chiquette of Montpelier for the seduction of his daughter, the amount of the ad damnum being set at $2,000. Martineau secured bail and later disappeared. It was reported he went to Montreal and Deputy Sheriff Hiram Wedge went after him but he could not be located.

A $20.00 gold piece was given away by mistake in making change last Saturday between 2 p. m. and 10 p. m., in one of the clothing stores in this city. Anyone who received the $20.00 gold piece from the sales person by mistake for either a 50-cent piece or a silver dollar, and wishes to return the $20.00 gold piece to The Times office, will receive a liberal reward for doing so, and there will be no blame laid to any one. This offer is made to prove the error made by the sales person who made the change to the customer, and about what time of the day.

C. H. Senter of Montpelier was in Burlington on Tuesday to appear for J. L. Dix of East Barre in the involuntary petition in bankruptcy before the United States circuit court. This petition was made by the Walker Grocery company, the Spear-Martin Fur company and the Holton Hardware company, it being alleged that Dix committed an act of bankruptcy by admitting in writing that he was unable to pay his creditors in full and admitting willingness to be adjudged bankrupt. Mr. Dix contested the adjudication and denied being bankrupt. Letters were produced which showed that he offered to settle for thirty cents on the dollar. He was adjudged bankrupt by the court. The petitioners were represented by M. L. Powell.
